Jacks' Flies of the month...

Article by: Jack Springer &
Scott Kessler

- Jan. 5th: Barretts' Cricket: An Elden Berrett fly, Signature tier for IDYWILDE. Berrett's Cricket is a great representation of a terrestrial insect. Tied in sizes 6-14. This fly is tied with a dubbing thorax and foam body. It mimics the shape, profile and color of a bug that just happened to drop and get trapped in the water film. Trout, Panfish and Bass love this pattern.
- Jan. 12th: Chocolate Thunder: This fly represents a micro nymph midge. Tied in sizes 16-24. Midges are in the fishes diet throughout the year. They are one bug that is always available. This very durable fly is tied in the "round" with Krystal Flash, a glass bead and micro tubing. The Krystal Flash under the tubing gives the flies a translucent effect that imitates natural insects.
- Jan. 19th: Parachute Adams: Best known and most popular of all parachute patterns. A timeless fly combining grizzly and brown hackles. Remarkably versatile in appearance in water. It is a mayfly, or a caddis fly or nymph, or all of the above.
- Jan. 26th: Bill Millers' Crayfish: This design criteria meets the perfect size, color and silhouette of a free drifting crawfish. Hook rides upright and is fished dead drift and/or steady drop. Small mouth bass and brown trout are in for a feast.

The next edition of this publication will cover the flies to be tied during February.

Fishing Report

Courtesy of: Lake Michigan Angler

Anglers are catching mixed bags of white bass, walleye, crappie, and a few musky on the Fox Chain on blade baits. Lake Michigan is still open and when conditions are good brown trout are biting in all the Wisconsin harbors. Tube jigs, minnows and Flicker Shad have been the best baits. North Point docks are now open to fishermen. There have been some nice pike over ten pounds caught casting spinners and on live suckers.

The Kenosha Sport fishing and Conservation Association is a non-profit organization dedicated to the protection and proper utilization of the Great Lakes resources. Established in 1969 by local family fisherman, we continue to focus on conservation of the Great Lakes. For over 40 years the K.S.F.C.A. has worked to support our community and the Great Lakes through various activities and educational programs. Some current examples include: kids fishing programs, fly tying classes, Pike river clean-up efforts, and stocking Lake Michigan with over 40,000 Chinook salmon annually.

If you would like to support these activities, please contact us by phone, mail, or email. We welcome anyone interested in becoming a member. If you are not interested in becoming a member, but would still like to support these important activities in our community, we do accept financial donations.
